

The Local Business AI Kit — More Reviews, Bookings & Repeat Customers

12 copy-paste AI prompts for restaurants, salons, shops, and local services to get more reviews, fill quiet days, and keep customers coming back — on a free ChatGPT or Claude account. No marketing budget required.

How to use: replace [BRACKETS]. Keep claims truthful and follow platform rules (e.g., never offer payment for reviews). AI drafts; you approve.

Part 1 — Get Found & Get Reviews

1. Optimize your Google Business description

Write a Google Business Profile description for "[BUSINESS TYPE]" in "[AREA]". Include what we do, what makes us local/special, and natural keywords people search. Friendly, ≤750 characters.

2. Ask for reviews the right way

Write 3 short, warm messages asking a happy customer for a Google review (SMS, email, in-person card). Make it 1-tap easy, never pushy, never offer incentives. Include a line they can copy if unsure what to write.

3. Reply to reviews (good and bad)

Write replies to these reviews for "[BUSINESS]": a 5-star one (warm, specific thanks) and a 2-star one "[PASTE]" (calm, takes responsibility, offers to make it right offline). Protect our reputation.

Part 2 — Fill Quiet Days

4. Promotion ideas for slow periods

Suggest 5 low-cost promotions to fill quiet [days/times] for a "[BUSINESS TYPE]" in "[AREA]". For each: the offer, who it targets, and a 1-line pitch. Keep margins healthy.

5. SMS/WhatsApp blast to past customers

Write a short SMS to past customers announcing "[OFFER]". Friendly, ≤160 characters, clear value, one CTA (book/visit), easy opt-out line.

6. Local social post

Write an Instagram/Facebook post for "[BUSINESS]" promoting "[OFFER/EVENT]". Local and warm, a strong photo idea, 5 local hashtags, clear CTA.

Part 3 — Keep Customers Coming Back

7. Simple loyalty/repeat offer

Design a simple repeat-customer offer for "[BUSINESS TYPE]" (punch card, "next visit" discount, or VIP list). Explain how it works and a message to introduce it to customers.

8. Win-back message for lapsed customers

Write a warm "we miss you" message to customers who haven't visited in a while, with a small reason to return. Two versions: SMS and email.

9. Birthday / occasion message

Write a friendly birthday/occasion message offering a small treat at "[BUSINESS]". Personal, low-pressure, makes them feel valued.

Part 4 — Run It Smoother

10. Answer common customer questions

You are front-desk for "[BUSINESS]". Our info: [hours, services, prices, location]. Customer asks: "[PASTE]". Answer in ≤80 words using only these facts; if unknown, offer to check.

11. Menu / service descriptions

Write appetizing, accurate descriptions for these [menu items/services]: "[LIST]". Each ≤30 words, sensory and clear, no over-claiming.

12. Staff shout-out / hiring post

Write a short post to [celebrate a team member / announce we're hiring] at "[BUSINESS]". Warm, on-brand, with a clear next step.
